

Week 1: Sustainable Development and use of Resources

- SBA: progress update (The Instrument)
- Population (definition, characteristics, sources and uses of population data)

Week 2: Sustainable Development and use of Resources

- Importance of population statistics
- Population distribution and density
- Reading population maps (dot map and choropleth maps)

Week 3: Sustainable Development and use of Resources

- Reading and interpreting population data/statistics

Week 4: Sustainable Development and use of Resources

- Factors influencing population change (birth rate, death rate, migration)
- Calculating and interpreting data associated with birth rate, death rate, net migration, natural increase

Week 5: Sustainable Development and use of Resources

- Interpreting data related to human resources
- Population pyramid
- Assessment

Week 6: Sustainable Development and use of Resources

- Migration
- Causes
- Consequences
- Global impact of migration

Week 7: Sustainable Development and use of Resources

- The need for developing human resources
- Development through education, health, sports and culture

Week 8: Sustainable Development and use of Resources

- Explanation of terms (employment, unemployment, under employment)
- Factors influencing employment, unemployment, under employment

Week 9: Sustainable Development and use of Resources

- Employment and career opportunities in different industries
- Group presentations
- Assessment

Week 10: School Based Assessment

- Presentation of Data
- Analysis and interpretation of data
- Findings
- Recommendations